MIRROR, MIRROR, IT'S TIME FOR DINNER

Prestige was the official magazine of an event that transported guests to a fantastical realm of magic, acrobatics, dance and otherworldly culinary delights

The Occasion: The Crystal Mirror

The Venues: The Padang

The Spoils: This was an extravaganza of world-class performances indeed — dynamic skating duo The Skating Willers literally flew above ground; German juggling maestro Andreas Wessels jumped a rope while juggling six balls; contortionists The Caesar Twins blended their movements in mind-boggling unison; hippie-looking Tom Naddy blew bubbles of bewilderingly-realistic forms and aerial contortionist Jenny Adler belted out mesmerising ditties while suspended in the air. Guests also revelled in comedy performances and tap dancing. Executive directors Hannes Nimpuno and Gerhard Lonyi of Shakshin Entertainment made us believe a raft of varied performances could all take place on a tiny stage. The 1,500 mirrors lining the walls of the tent made the entire experience that much more magical.

Wine & Dine: Chef de cuisine of two-Michelin-star restaurant Auberge du Cheval Blanc Franck Mischler and Alfred Holzfeind, chef de cuisine of Austria's Grand Hotel Panhans in Austria together conjured up a four-course haute cuisine dinner with Viennese influences.
