

Style: checklist

Melissa De Silva highlights this month's things to do and see.

DINNER THEATRE FAB

Tuck into a four-course haute cuisine dinner with rare wines by two-star Michelin chef Franck Mischler (of the Auberge du Cheval Blanc) while delighting the rest of your senses with theatrical artistry and carefully crafted pandemonium by a world-class cast of acrobats, comedians, musicians and wacky wait staff in The Crystal Mirror. Enjoy all this under the Mirror Tent, an Art Nouveau-style tent decorated in silks and brocades evoking the old world.

The Crystal Mirror premieres in Singapore on 9 March for a limited run before continuing the rest of its Asian tour. Tickets from $159 to $320, available at Sistic.

